Board

DEAR SIB—I herewith inclose you cight reports for consideration by the land board. All the parties engaged in the stock business here, I find, have ranch improvements on the range, and keep men whose business it is to lock affects. The valley land is fine several sections are sub-irrigated. There is mountain range at all accessible points and fine gramma grass is luxuriant. This range has been occupied by ter wandering cattle and return them to the range, as well as mark and brand them at the semi-annual round-ups. They all claim not to line-ride, or to turn loose herds, but they keep men on the range all the time—call it what you will.

I traveled through the Calamity creek country and found the range generally very good, producing fine gramma grass; out this is a very mountainous country, and many school sections can never be utilized for range. Water in places is scarce. The valleys small and not very good. Most of the stockmen would lease from the state but for the price, which they consider exorbitant for this section, o much of the range being of no value. They lease from the railroad companies at three and four cents. The railroad companies have their lands classed and claim all the water in the county, as well as the wood. For many miles on this creek there is no water. In dry times the creek sinks its water often and seems to fill up with gravel in rainy seasons, and unless the stockmen keep the pools cleaned out, 10 35 p. m. they will have to resort to windmills and 11 00 p. m. wells, as some are now doing on their 0.40 a. m. own lands. Much of this range country which is now destitute of water and yields no revenue could be useful to the state if ranchmen could lease at a low rate and on long time enough to justify them in developing water.

I find many places in this mountainous country where the water is at the surface that are of a fine quality and sub-irrigated, which will also be gone soon, as dry lands fit only for the production of grass.

No stockman who files his application for lease, or purchase, is willing to admit that these lands should be classed. But I know to the commany. Time only to the different funds.

Report No. 8, on Presidio county, thus alludes to another case: "One on or about the 1st of June last, Miss bought in 1900 head of cattle, on block shoes of aud 92, Galveston, Harrisburg & San a pair. Antonio railroad survey, and about the 14th of last August, one — joined them on the same range with 700 head of cattle. They own no land and have leased none, but I am informed that they have applied to purchase one section of school land. Mr. has also contracted to winter on this range 2000 head of eat-tle for other parties, whose names I have been unable to ascertain, but will continue to try to learn."

And agains "Mr. . Murphyville postoffice, Presidio county, owns section 36 (640 acres), block 211, Texas & St. Louis railroad survey. He has 1000 cattle and has leased no callroad or school and only a small opening is necessary to develop a fine spring of flowing, lasting water. Actual settlers and stockmen understood this peculiar advantage to them, and the state is the sufferer, because the land is virtually watered.

There are also many sectlers of lands. There are, also, many sections of lands is traced in a fine quality and sub-irrigated, talk will also be gone soon, as dry ands fit only for the production of grass.
